The P.R.C.U. Archives and Museum

The year 1943 was financially the most successful in the history of the Polish Roman Catholic Union Archives and Museum. Membership fees in the Polish Society of History and Museum, the auxiliary of the Museum, and other voluntary contributions reached the record sum of $4,904.27. On July 1, 1944, the special Museum Endowment Fund amounted to $3,606.15. This year collections promise to be even larger. All this undoubtedly reflects to some extent the growing national prestige of the institution.

The largest single contribution to date is that of the Venerable Felician Sisters who have already earned such a brilliant record of devotion and achievements in the annals of the Polish Americans. Contributions of their different provinces for perpetual memberships and to the Endowment Fund at present amount to $622.50, without taking into account personal contributions of individual Sisters and single donations of schools managed by the Order. The second largest single donor was the late Joseph Kowalczyk, President of the Polish Grocers' Baking Co., Chicago, who contributed $500.00 shortly before his death. His memory will be gratefully preserved by the Museum. The third most liberal donor is the Polish Falcons' Alliance, Pittsburgh; the total sum of its donations amounts to $300.00. The fourth place occupies the Rev. Felix J. Kachnowski, Chaplain of the Polish R.C. Union and Chairman of the Museum Committee, with donations of $225.00, and the fifth the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Severine E. Niedbalski of Erie, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley T. Kusper and the Polish Union of the U. S., who contributed $200.00 each.

The Fifth Annual Meeting of the Polish Society of History and Museum took place on November 11, 1943. This was not only the largest meeting in the history of the society, but also one reflecting the growing interest in the Museum and its work among the members. The Meeting was opened by President John J. Olejniczak of the Polish R. C. Union and presided over by the Rev. Felix J. Kachnowski, Chairman of the Museum Committee. Mr. Sigismund Stefanowicz, editor of the Narod Polski, acted as recording secretary.

After the business meeting the Rev. Stanislaus Lisewski, Ph.D., C.S.C., of the Notre Dame University, lectured on "Paderewski, a Spirit and a Leader." The Meeting was preceded by a Mass at the Holy Trinity Church.

In cooperation with the Commission for Research on Polish Immigration, the Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences in America, and with the financial help of the Educational Department of the Polish R. C. Union, the Museum again arranged a series of lectures in the past winter season. On January 16, the Rev. Francis Bolek, A. M., St. Francis College, Athol Springs, N. Y., lectured on "Intellectual Movement Among Polish Americans", and "Literary Contributions of Polish-Born Americans". On February 6, the Rev. Sister M. Neomisla Rutkowska, Ph.D., C.S.F.N., of Philadelphia, Pa., read a paper on "John Tyssowski"¹. Both lectures attracted a very large audience, and were held in the main Museum hall. Outside of this series, Dr. Stefan Włoszczewski of New York lectured on Polish Americans from the sociological standpoint on March 8 in the Library of the Museum.

In the past twelve months the Museum has arranged five temporary exhibits: of old records, photographs, badges etc. pertaining to the 70th anniversary of the founding of the Polish R. C. Union; Tyssowski's Papers donated by Mrs. Ada Bassett Tyssowski Cranford of Maryland; books, letters, photographs honoring the anniversary of the untimely death of Gen. Wladyslaw Sikorski, the Prime Minister of Poland; old maps of Poland of which the Museum has a very fine collection; and prints, medals, letters, maps, books etc. in honor of the 150th anniversary of the Kosciuszko Insurrection.

A gilt partisan of bodyguard of Augustus II, King of Poland (1670-1733), gift of Dr. Charles H. Wachtl of Philadelphia, Pa.

New York, for the exhibition of Polish Painting of the Nineteenth Century, and some objects Independently of these temporary exhibits, the Museum most willingly extended the hospitality of its quarters to the Polonus Philatelic Society and the Polish Arts Club whose annual exhibits are outstanding local events. For the first time these societies have chosen the Museum as the place for their exhibitions and both brought great success. The Polonus' Polpex 1944 lasted three days, February 25-27, and the XV Art Exhibit of the Polish Arts Club from April 23 till May 13. Thus, we hope, a lasting cooperation between these so well-deserved societies and the Museum has been most auspiciously inaugurated.

Several pictures from the collections of the Museum have been loaned to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, for the exhibit of Polish Woodcuts at the Chicago Art Institute.

The collections of the Museum have been enriched by many new gifts, the most important of which are: a text book Carminum Structura by Laurentius Corvinus of Cracow, printed in 1508, gift of H. E. Minister Sylwin Strakacz of New York; relics of Gen. Wladimir Krzyzanowski, donated by Mr. Henry Archacki of New York; a collection of Polish medals stolen from a museum in Poland by Russian soldiers during World War I and accidentally recovered by Mr. Leo Cackowski of Detroit during his stay in Russia in 1932-3, gift of Mr. Joseph Dziekan of Detroit; a collection of Vatican coins, gift of the Very Rev. Msgr. Lucian Bójnowski of New Britain, Conn.; "Polish Madonna", oil painting by Irena Lorentowicz, gift of the artist; a collection of Polish peasant costumes, donated by Dr. Irena Paryska-Rosińska of Toledo, O.; a miniature "Paderewski at his piano", gift of Mrs. Stanisława Petrykowska of Milwaukee, Wis., and a case for the miniature made and donated by Mr. Frances Gzela of Chicago; a gold-plated partisan of bodyguard of Augustus II. of Poland, medals, autographs, books and old maps of Poland from Dr. Charles H. Wachtl of Philadelphia, Pa.; "Peasant Girl", pastel by John Fabion, gift of the artist; a collection of Lincolniana, gift of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Borucki of Berwyn, Ill.; family relics, gift of Misses Alice and Margaret Dombrowski of Joliet, Ill., and many others. The Museum extends its most sincere thanks to all donors.

In 1943, according to the report of the Custodian, the Museum had 5,415 visitors. There were 60 group visits, 37 of which were school groups. The reference library of the Museum was used by 107 students, and 77 institutions and individuals were helped by mail in their research work on Polish subjects. The Museum also helped to arrange a course on Polish art for the Ven. Bernardine Sisters at Reading, Pa., and constantly helped soldiers studying Polish subjects at the University of Illinois by interlibrary loans. Over 600 books and pamphlets were distributed free to Polish soldiers and exiles in all parts of the world.

The P. R. C. U. Archives and Museum endeavors to be of the greatest possible service to all seeking any information on the history of the Poles in America or of Poland. We invite all such students to make free use of these facilities, and the Custodian will gladly make convenient arrangements. Our reference library contains, among other collections, what is most probably the largest existing collection of Polonica in the English language.

The P. R. C. U. Archives and Museum collects anything which has any bearing on the history of Poles in the United States. It will appreciate donations of any of the following items:

Books and pamphlets on the history and biography of the Poles in the United States; reports of Polish-American Societies and Institutions of any kind; books and pamphlets by American-Poles on any subject; books on Poland or any Polish subject in any language, published in the United States; files of Polish-American newspapers or magazines, complete volumes or single numbers; portraits of Polish-American pioneers and eminent persons; photographs and pictures illustrating Polish life in America; autographs and manuscripts, maps, medals, badges, uniforms and banners of Polish-American Societies, etc.

Communications and gifts may be addressed to the Custodian of the P. R. C. U. Archives and Museum, 984-986 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago 22, Ill.

HIS EXCELLENCY GOVERNOR DWIGHT H. GREEN OF ILLINOIS ON THE P. R. C. U. MUSEUM:

Perhaps the greatest undertaking of your organization today is your effort to preserve for mankind the valued Polish culture which the Nazis have attempted to destroy. That you have advanced far in this cultural battle with the Nazis, may be attested to by the magnificent museum founded by the Polish Roman Catholic Union in this city. We are not only happy that you have been able to assemble this highly instructive collection, but we are particularly happy that you have chosen our own City of Chicago as the site for your museum. Indeed, it is another step in that long series of achievements which have brought Chicago from a frontier outpost to a world cultural leader.

The museum's Paderewski exhibit is one which is of intense interest to all of us Americans who know and love his music, and who thrilled at his marvelous skill on the piano. The Joseph Conrad exhibit brings another familiar name to all of us, because there are few adult Americans who have not enjoyed the enthralling sea stories of that great Polish author.

Your museum also reminds us that the Polish people have contributed tremendously to the world's scientific progress. The Copernicus exhibit makes us recall that Christopher Columbus was familiar with the geographical teachings of the great master before he set sail on the momentous voyage which was to result in the discovery of a new world. And our modern scientific progress owes much to the work of your world-renowned Madam Curie.

With such high regard for Poland's world contributions to the arts and letters, I cannot praise too highly the successful efforts of the Polish Roman Catholic Union to preserve that culture and to establish a museum here in Chicago in order that all of us may benefit. Your achievement is positive proof that Poland cannot die. It is the result of feelings so devout and of a love and loyalty so sacred that it can never be exterminated by Nazi-ism, or by any other kind of totalitarian barbarism and cruelty.

Church Records of Panna
Maria, Texas, The Oldest Polish
Settlement in the U. S.

The idea of publishing the church records of Panna Maria, the first and the oldest Polish parish in America, was conceived by Mr. Miecisl'aus Haiman, Custodian of the P.R.C.U. Archives and Museum. The purpose of this publication is to assure the preservation of these historically valuable records and to perpetuate the names of the sturdy pioneers of this first Polish colony in the new world. The records will also be of interest to present and future generations, for many descendants of the Panna Maria pioneers are scattered all over the country.

The task of reproducing all the records of the church would be too great even if the space of a publication of this kind would allow it. We, therefore, had to limit ourselves to the records up to the time of the Confederate War. Only births and marriages are treated here; the book of funerals, up to the advent of the Resurrectionist Fathers in November 1866, has either been lost or transferred to some other church. Maybe this is a happy coincidence. Death and destruction have filled the world with so much gloom that we would read only of the happy tidings of life.

From a historical point of view it would be better to reproduce our records in their original languages, namely, Latin and Spanish. But from the practical point, this would greatly limit their usefulness. The first pastor, Father Leopold Moczygemba, a Minor Conventual of the Franciscan Order, recorded everything in Latin. The second pastor, Anthony Rossadowski, also a Franciscan, must have decided to apply himself wholeheartedly to the learning of the Spanish language, for about the 63rd baptism he records everything in Spanish. The third pastor, Father Julian Przy siecki, records from the very beginning of his pastorate in Spanish. Hence, in places, the reader will find even the first names translated into Spanish as, for example, Catalina or Santiago.

Incidentally, Father Przysiecki is much briefer in his registering of facts pertaining to one's genealogy than his predecessors were,

The reader might notice too that some names though sounding alike are spelled differently. That is due to the fact that every pastor had his own way of spelling the names, just as it so often happens in our day. We, however, thought it better to reproduce them just as they are recorded. And to give the reader an idea how the records are written, we are quoting the first records in their original Latin.

—ooo—

Thereafter, throughout the Confederate War and until the coming of the Resurrectionists in November 1866, Panna Maria did not have a stationary pastor. Every two or three months some priest would come to administer to the spiritual needs of the people. The baptismal records show, for instance, three baptisms on Jan. 6, 1864, five baptisms April 7, 1864, five baptisms July 20, 1864. In the year 1865, a priest came once a month, as is indicated by a monthly recording of baptisms.
